PROFILE

I'm a UI Developer with expertise in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Angular, and more. Previously working at Quantum Business Advisory for the client LOGIXtech Solutions LLC, I have hands on creating and maintaining engaging websites. I also Completed an Internship at Persistent Systems, where I honed my skills in Java, SQL, and networking. With a Bachelor's in Computer Science, I've developed projects like the Nike Online Store and a Hospital Management System. Beyond coding, I'm passionate about community involvement, sports, art, gaming, and music.
